

Aga Khan Economic Planning Board for India

With regards to the recent financial measures announced by the Government relating to 3 months EMI moratorium, jamati members, if required, can take benefit of this relief measure. This can be done by reaching out to the respective financial lenders (either banks or NBFCs) by writing to them for availing a deferment of 3 months from paying EMI. Mentioned below is a suggested draft letter that can be sent from the registered email id in this regard

"Dear Sir / Madam

I have taken _____ loan vide loan account no _____ from your bank. My main source of income is _____ and the same is got affected due to lock down. As per the latest announcement by RBI I wish to get the benefit of three months' moratorium which will help me to reduce my financial burden in this crucial time.

I will start paying the EMI / payments on regular basis as per the RBI guidelines.

Kindly do the needful and grant me the benefits of moratorium period,

Thanking you"
